India is a country with diverse weather conditions prone to extremes of summers as high as 43.3 degrees and winters as low as 2.5 degrees, Moreover, the unpredictable rains and windy storms make a frequent visit specially in the northern areas. In such events weather conditions are a havoc since they not only ruin your wedding but also contaminate the food very frequently leading to an unhealthy environment affecting your health.

Lavita Palace is architecturally so designed that it keeps you protected from harsh weather conditions; rains, storms, wind, heat strokes and winter chills unlike the open gardens in which there are more chances of your wedding being spoiled due to such atmospheric influences as well as ill health by food contamination.
