A bride and groom are captured in a joyful moment, dancing on a polished floor. The bride, in a white gown, has her arms raised and a wide smile, while the groom, in a dark suit, holds her hands. They are surrounded by a dense canopy of warm white string lights that create a festive and romantic atmosphere. In the background, other guests and white chairs are visible, suggesting a large wedding reception.

A photograph of a restaurant interior. The ceiling is made of dark wood with exposed pipes and is covered in numerous warm white string lights. The room is filled with round tables covered in white tablecloths, each surrounded by white chairs. The tables are set with dark napkins, white plates, and lit candles. The walls are made of brick and wood, and there are large windows in the background. The overall atmosphere is warm and sophisticated.
